

Partner Schools Network

Self-evaluation Form For Teachers
Relating To The Standards

Domain/area of performance	Standards	I do not meet this standard	I partially meet this standard	I fully meet this standard	I exceed this standard	Comment/evidence
Knowledge	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The teacher knows the subjects he or she teaches. 2. The teacher knows and understands the requirements of the curriculum for the subjects taught. 3. The teacher knows and understands how to present the subject matter to students. 4. The teacher knows and understands how students learn and develop. 5. The teacher knows and understands modern pedagogy. 6. The teacher knows and understands methods of educational evaluation (assessment and testing).
Skills	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The teacher can explain the subject matter clearly, and make it interesting for students.

Domain/area of performance	Standards	I do not meet this standard	I partially meet this standard	I fully meet this standard	I exceed this standard	Comment/evidence
	2. The teacher can plan students' learning appropriately. 3. The teacher can communicate and interact effectively with students. 4. The teacher can motivate students to learn. 5. The teacher can manage the classroom effectively. 6. The teacher can use modern teaching methods and strategies that engage students actively in learning and enable them to develop the skills to learn effectively. 7. The teacher can evaluate students' performance efficiently and accurately, and can use the outcomes of evaluation to promote students' progress. 8. The teacher can enable all students to learn effectively, by taking full account of students' individual differences.

Domain/area of performance	Standards	I do not meet this standard	I partially meet this standard	I fully meet this standard	I exceed this standard	Comment/evidence
Values and attitudes	1. The teacher is committed to the profession of teaching, to his/her own learning, and to promoting the students' learning, so that they all make progress and perform well. 2. The teacher is committed to developing and consolidating the national and ethical values in students. 3. The teacher is committed to positive relationships with students, professional colleagues in the school, families and society. 4. The teacher is committed to active participation in school activities. 5. The teacher is committed to self-evaluation of his/her performance, and to improving his/her performance through professional development.

