TASK A

We will use your performance on this task for the purposes of shortlisting applicants.

In no more than 300 words, respond to one of the following topics

1. With a growing number of Nepalese students going abroad to study; how do you think it will affect Nepal economically and socially?
2. Explain the 3 most important things you feel you will learn from your education abroad and how you feel you can use them in the development of Nepal?

Strong responses will have the following characteristics:

- Answer all parts of the question
- Demonstrate originality
- Present thought-provoking points of view
- English Language proficiency to a level where undue strain is not placed on the reader

Please note that all shortlisted candidates will need to give a short presentation in person on a separate topic.

It is mandatory to submit TASK A along with the application form.

Last date for receipt of application form in July 29, 2016

Terms and Conditions

- (1) Application: Your application (including anything you add at the interview or afterwards) should be accurate, not omit any facts that are relevant and not be misleading. If we find that there are significant errors or omissions in the information you have supplied to us in the course of your application you will not be offered an Award, or you will have your award withdrawn or terminated.
- (2) Selection: The selection process will be fair. No applicant will have, or should seek or accept, any unfair advantage. If we find that you have obtained an unfair advantage in the selection process we reserve the right not to offer you an Award or withdraw or terminate your Award.
- (3) Entry Clearance: You must tell us when you apply if there is anything (such as previous convictions or associations with terrorist organizations) that may be an impediment to securing visa or entry clearance to study overseas. If for any reason you cannot obtain a visa to study in desired country of study, then the British Council may withdraw the offer of an Award. You should not make commitments, especially commitments with financial consequences, unless you are certain that there will be no impediment to you securing visa or entry clearance to study.
- (4) Offer Withdrawal: British Council reserves the right to withdraw the offer of an IELTS Award if in its sole determination it believes that the circumstances are such that this is in the best interests of the applicant or British Council.

Data Protection:

Thank you for providing information about yourself on this form. Your personal information will be used in line with British Council standards. The British Council will treat all personal information in accordance with UK law and its own privacy policy. The British Council will not sell or disclose your details to third parties for commercial reasons. We will look after the information carefully and use it to consider your suitability for an Award and to manage the application process. It will be made available to staff at the British Council and non-British Council members of any assessment panel coordinated by the British Council. If you are unsuccessful, the information will be held securely and destroyed in due course.

Under UK data protection law you have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you and the right to ask us to correct any inaccurate information. If you want more information about this please contact your local British Council office or see our data protection website.
